LR 335

and Kendra Burgess from Ashby. We welcome you to the Legislature. Mr. Dennis Hensen is a guest of Senator DeCamp, under the north balcony. If you all would stand, we'd like to thank you and recognize you for coming to the Legislature. Next matter, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, may I read some things?

PRESIDENT: Yes, matters for the record.

CLERK: Your Committee on Banking, Commerce and Insurance, whose Chair is Senator DeCamp, reports LB 880 to General File with amendments attached, 968 General File with amendments attached, 792 indefinitely postponed. All signed by Senator DeCamp. (See pages 644-45 of the Journal.)

LR 335 is by Senator Conway. (Read summary of resolution. See pages 645-46 of the Journal.)

New A bills, Mr. President. (Read by title for the first time LB 795A, 900A, 959A. See page 646 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: The call of the house is raised.

CLERK: Senator Hoagland would like to print amendments to 877, Senator Vickers to 419, Senator Wesely to 325. (See pages 646-47 and pages 663-64 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, back to LB 626, Senator Chambers would move to amend. Senator Chambers's amendment would strike the Hoagland-Beyer amendment.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, Senator Hoagland said that, instead of me trying to delete self-employed persons from the bill, an effort should be made to strike that amendment that was offered and adopted yesterday which struck cab drivers and truck drivers from the benefits of this bill. So, pursuant to that suggestion having failed in my other attempt to bring some justice into this situation, I am now offering an amendment to strike the Hoagland-Beyer amendment. That amendment is what introduces the note of injustice and
